Attachment A

Scope of Work

RIHousing seeks to create a roster of qualified laboratories that it can engage on an as-needed basis to provide quantitative analytical services to test for and report on the presence of lead in dust, paint, water, and soil. Timely sample preparation, analysis, and result reporting are critical to the RIHousing LeadSafe Homes Program (“LSHP”) operation. All laboratories submitting proposals must, at a minimum, be ELLAP-certified.

Laboratory services must include the following:

1. Testing of environmental samples to the Lowest Reportable Limit to align with the revised EPA Dust Lead Action Levels for Floors, Window Sills and Troughs for the following sample types based on the new EPA levels finalized October 2024 (see below for reduced levels):
 - a. dust wipes
 - b. paint chips
 - c. water
 - d. soil

New Dust Lead Action Levels

- Floors: Reduced from 10 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ to 5 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$.
- Windowsills: Reduced from 100 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ to 40 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$.
- Window Troughs: Reduced from 400 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ to 100 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$.

2. Supply of media sampling collection materials for dust wipes, paint, water and soil, including pre-printed chain of custody forms, “Ghost” wipes, centrifuge collection tubes, zip-lock bags, and prepared water collection bottles.

3. Completion of analysis within the following turnaround times (after receipt of media samples):

- a. 2 hours – except water
- b. Same day by 4:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time – except water
- c. Next day by 4:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time
- d. Within 3 days
- e. Within 5 days
- f. Water – Next Day, 3 Day, and 5 Day

4. Electronic and hard-copy transmission of analysis reports to the LSHP and participating Inspector (defined and described below), including original Chain of Custody (“COC”) forms.

5. Compliance with media sample submission procedures as follows:

The LSHP works with Rhode Island Department of Health Certified Environmental Lead Inspection firms (“Inspection Firms”) who employ one or more Certified Environmental Lead Inspectors

RFP/RFQ Title: _____
Respondent Name: _____

(“Inspectors”). These Inspectors provide services to identify lead hazards, including the collection of dust wipes, paint chips, soil and water samples from properties for laboratory analysis. The LSHP will provide each laboratory on the roster with a list of Inspection Firms and Inspectors approved to submit samples for analysis. The LSHP will only pay for the analysis of LSHP samples submitted by LSHP staff or by those Inspection Firms and Inspectors on the approved LSHP list.

A laboratory may already serve one or more Inspection Firms or Inspectors. As a result, it is important that the laboratory establish and utilize a system to keep LSHP and other sample submissions separate. In the past, the LSHP has provided Inspection Firms and Inspectors with COC forms pre-printed with LSHP account and contact information for use with LSHP samples. A similar system will be developed with the laboratory to maintain sample submission segregation.

Sample media will be delivered to the laboratory via a commercial carrier such as UPS or FedEx with the bill of lading number identifying the package indicated on the COC form. For local laboratories, couriers and/or in person delivery may be utilized.

6. Analysis of samples at the volume described below. In a typical year, the LSHP inspects approximately 150 units. Inspections are performed: (1) to identify hazards prior to any lead hazard reduction/control work and (2) upon completion of the work to verify the cleaning meets regulation standards. In years when funding commitments allow advanced production, the LSHP requires testing for as many as 350 units. Therefore, sampling could range from around 4,000 to 10,000 samples to be tested in a given year.

A laboratory’s term of inclusion on the roster is subject to funding source and funding availability, but it is currently anticipated that the initial term will be two (2) years with an option to extend at the sole discretion of RIHousing.
