Scope of Work

RIHousing seeks to engage community agencies, state agencies, non-profits and/or municipalities to work collaboratively with the LeadSafe Homes Program (“LSHP”) to provide on-site education, outreach, and packing and relocation guidance and oversight to participants in the LSHP. The LSHP delivers the services of this program to eligible properties located across the State under a HUD-funded grant as well as through the State-funded loan program; therefore, respondents must be able to work statewide.

The partner will work to ensure site readiness for the commencement of lead remediation work to ensure LeadSafe contractors are able to start work on time. LSHP staff will develop a relocation plan for the unit occupants and coordinate this plan with the partner, unit occupants, and the lead hazard control contractor. Relocation prep will require partner to report any specific needs for relocation that need to be considered in making arrangements (i.e. pets, needs for adjoining rooms, etc.) The partner must coordinate and conduct an initial site visit to meet with unit occupants in their home and to provide a demonstration of packing instructions and sealing procedures as well as an overview of the packing/relocation process. This initial visit will be followed by a minimum of one site visit to check progress as well as a final site visit to sign off on site readiness prior to work start. Both home visits and remote preparation with both property owner and tenants will be necessary.

RIHousing may consider any other meaningful services and/or assistance a potential partner may be in a position to provide that supports the LSHP’s operations.

Partners may be engaged as contractors or subgrantees based on funding source and services provided, as determined by RIHousing in its sole discretion.

The term of engagement may vary based on funding source and services provided, but it is anticipated that the term will be one (1) year with an option to extend for one (1) year at a time at the sole discretion of RIHousing.
