INTRODUCTION

Through this Request for Proposals (“RFP”), the Rhode Island Housing and Mortgage Finance Corporation (“RIHousing”) seeks proposals from affordable housing owners and developers to receive rental subsidy through the US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Section 811 Project Rental Assistance (PRA) program. The 811 PRA program assists extremely low income, non-elderly individuals with disabilities by providing a project-based rental subsidy linked with supportive services. RIHousing specifically seeks units that are compliant with Fair Housing, Civil Rights, Accessibility, Environmental, Lead Paint, and other requirements as set forth in the guidelines for the Section 811 Program (24 CFR 891).

The 811 PRA program couples project rental assistance contracts with leveraged services committed by BHDDH approved service provider agencies. RIHousing is seeking a commitment of up to 13 units to designate to the 811 PRA program that will be immediately available for occupancy or suitable for occupancy before the end of December 2025.

RIHousing anticipates making multiple awards to multiple affordable housing owners and developers. Should RIHousing recapture any additional previously allocated 811 PRA program funds, RIHousing reserves the right to allocate them as part of this funding round.

Scope of Work

I. Services to be Provided

Through this RFP, RIHousing seeks proposals from affordable housing owners and developers to receive rental subsidy through HUD’s Section 811 PRA program. The 811 PRA program assists extremely low income, non-elderly individuals with disabilities by providing a project-based rental subsidy linked with supportive services. The selected owners and developers will be required to meet all applicable fair housing, civil rights, accessibility, environmental, lead paint, and other requirements set forth in the federal regulations governing the Program and other HUD guidelines. The regulations are codified at title 24, part 891 of the Code of Federal Regulations (the “Program Regulations”).

RIHousing is seeking to award PRA contracts for up to 13 units in multiple developments. RIHousing anticipates making multiple awards to affordable housing owners and developers or could award one developer/owner PRA contracts in multiple developments within their portfolio.

II. Project Schedule

RIHousing is seeking units that are able to be designated to the 811 PRA program within 60 days of the rental assistance contract execution and suitable for occupancy no later than December 2025.

III. Project Approach

RIHousing’s 811 PRA program is a local implementation of a HUD initiative that assists extremely low-income people with disabilities to live independently in the community by providing rental subsidies linked with supportive services. The Program is operated nationally by state housing agencies in collaboration with state Medicaid and health and human services organizations. In Rhode Island, the Program is operated by RIHousing in collaboration with the Rhode Island Executive Office of Health and Human Services (EOHHS) and the Rhode Island Department of Behavioral Healthcare, Developmental Disabilities, and Hospitals (BHDDH). RIHousing’s 811 PRA program couples project rental assistance contracts administered by RIHousing with leveraged services committed locally by EOHHS/BHDDH approved service provider agencies.

General 811 PRA Program Description

Program subsidies are project-based and remain with the housing unit at tenant turnover. Assisted individuals/families contribute 30% of their monthly household income towards rent, in accordance with the Program Regulations and other HUD rules, and the Program

Respondent Name: _____

subsidy covers the balance. Tenants must be matched with these units through an application process and waiting list administered by RIHousing in coordination with BHDDH.

Tenant Eligibility

- Tenants must be extremely low-income (at or below 30 percent of the median income for the area);
- At least one adult member of the household must have a disability;
- At least one person in the assisted household must be non-elderly (ages 18-61);
- Tenants must have the ability to fulfill the lease requirements with reasonable accommodation (if applicable); and
- The household member with the disability must belong to at least one of the following target populations:
 - Leaving nursing homes, group homes or state hospitals
 - At serious risk of entering an institution or congregate care setting
 - Housing is unstable and/or their needs cannot be met in current housing
 - At risk of homelessness as demonstrated by CES or BHDDH
 - High users of Medicaid services currently homeless and open to the HMIS and CES

Services to Tenants

BHDDH will confirm eligible applicants have access to supportive services before a client is referred to an available unit under the program. The service providers are expected to:

- Refer eligible populations
- Assist with the housing application process
- Ensure tenant readiness
- Maintain housing stability/retention of participants

Service providers are expected to actively engage participants throughout their tenancy to assist with housing stability.

Eligibility Requirements for Developments and Units

The Program provides rental assistance to affordable housing developments financed with federal Low-Income Housing Tax Credits, HOME funds, or other governmental funding sources. Section 811 rental assistance may be used in a development that already contains some project-based units or other long term operating assistance but cannot be used for units that already receive a project-based or long-term operating subsidy.

The selected development owners will provide primarily one bedroom and studio units for leasing in connection with the Program. RIHousing may also consider efficiency units and some two-bedroom units to accommodate tenants' needs. The final unit mix will be approved by RIHousing based on demand. It is also preferable that properties provide access to community amenities such as jobs, transportation, recreation, retail services, health care, and social services.

Requirements for Owners

Owners must sign the following agreements with RIHousing to participate in the Program:

- Rental Assistance Contract (RAC) providing for rental assistance payments for specified units for a period of 20 years. RIHousing has the ability to modify the number of Program-assisted units in the RAC as the needs of the Program change over time.
- Use Agreement that restricts a specific number of units for use by extremely low-income persons with disabilities for a minimum of 30 years.

RIHousing has the ability to terminate the RAC and/or Use Agreement if Congress does not authorize funding beyond the initial five-year period. RIHousing does not intend to enforce a RAC or Use Agreement if Congress fails to appropriate funds adequate to meet the financial needs of covered units. Owners must use HUD's Section 811 model lease. Owners must obtain access to HUD's Secure Systems. HUD requires the use of the Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system to verify tenant household income.

Inspections

Owners must permit Program-supported units to undergo periodic physical inspections consistent with the most current physical construction and inspection standard, as required by HUD. To the extent feasible, RIHousing will align these inspections with those required for other programs.

Tenant Referral

RIHousing will perform marketing and tenant outreach for the 811 PRA program and qualify applicants for Program eligibility in coordination with BHDDH. RIHousing will maintain the applicant waiting list and refer applicants to property owners/managers after services have been confirmed by BHDDH when a vacancy is anticipated. Owners/managers are responsible for screening tenants for occupancy in accordance with their Tenant Selection Plans. Owners/managers are responsible for maintaining a Tenant Selection Plan that complies with the Program Regulations, other applicable HUD requirements, as well as local, state, and federal laws and ordinances. The tenant selection plan should include specific mention of extenuating circumstances the property will consider when screening the 811 PRA program applicants.

Environmental Requirements

The Program does not impose additional environmental requirements for properties that are already HUD-assisted or HUD-insured (provided that there are no physical changes beyond routine maintenance and minimal repairs); however, properties that are not already HUD-assisted or HUD-insured must demonstrate that they are free of hazardous materials, contamination, toxic chemicals and gases, and radioactive substances, where a hazard could affect health and safety or conflict with the property's intended use. To satisfy this requirement, projects must submit the following prior to the execution of a rental assistance contract: Phase I environmental Site Assessment, or certify that the site (i) is not listed on an

RFP/RFQ Title: _____

EPA Superfund National Priorities, CERCLA or equivalent list; (ii) is not located within 3,000 feet of a toxic or solid waste landfill site; (iii) does not have an underground storage tank other than a residential fuel tank; and (iv) is not known or suspected to be contaminated by toxic chemicals or radioactive materials.

Serving Individuals with Disabilities

Owners and property managers must comply with all applicable fair housing and civil rights statutes, regulations and ordinances. Tenant screening processes must comply with RIHousing's Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan. RIHousing, EOHHS, and/or BHDDH can provide coaching, information, and materials to participating property management staff in support of their efforts to improve customer service for persons with disabilities and develop cultural competency.

The Program provides a robust service platform for tenants who wish to participate. RIHousing, EOHHS and BHDDH are committed to ensuring that service providers are available to individuals and families receiving Section 811 rental assistance. While owners are not required to provide these services directly, they must cooperate with RIHousing, EOHHS, BHDDH, and their agents to support the delivery of services.

Unit Damage

Owners may collect a security deposit in the amount of one month of the tenant's portion of the contract rent or $25, whichever is greater. Program funds may not be used to reimburse owners for unit damages. Owners may collect any charges for unit damage that federal or state law allows. An owner may deduct amounts owed by the family from a security deposit, consistent with local law, but any remaining balance must be refunded to the family or RIHousing, when applicable.

Special Claims

RIHousing will provide vacancy payments for covered units for owners that have signed RACs, during initial lease-up and thereafter. Special claims for vacancy payments may not exceed 80 percent of the contract rent for up to 60 days of vacancy.

Compliance with HUD Rules and Regulations

Selected owners and developers will be required to comply with the Program Regulations, RIHousing 811 PRA program Policies and Procedures, and all applicable HUD rules and guidance with respect to the Program. By submitting an application responsive to this RFP, an owner or developer certifies that the units proposed to be supported with Program subsidies are eligible under the Program, and meet all applicable affordability, energy, environmental, lead-based paint, labor standards, accessibility, fair housing, and other criteria.

IV. Payment Terms

Owners must submit monthly electronic requisitions through HUD's computerized Tenant Rental Assistance Certification System ("TRACS"). Owners must make their electronic submissions into TRACS using standard HUD forms, following all HUD manuals and practice guides. Requisition requests must be entered into TRACS by the 10th day of each month in order to secure payment for the following month. RIHousing will require owners to participate in direct deposit for the purpose of subsidy payments.
