A great team

Barrett Planning Group LLC provides community planning and community development services for cities, towns, and non-profit organizations. Founded by Judi Barrett, a planner with over three decades of experience in the field, Barrett Planning Group is known for our creative approach to planning and problem solving, our expertise as trainers and technical assistance providers, our attentiveness to clients, and our expertise in capacity building. The community planners on our team bring a variety of backgrounds and experience: comprehensive plans, land use and zoning, housing, community engagement, environmental planning, economic development, and strategic planning.

Municipal technical assistance qualifications

- Housing needs analysis
- Land use/permitting requirements
- Development of model ordinances
- Public education and engagement
